

JUNGLE TRAVELS INDIA

50 Reasons

Why You should choose
a JTI Holiday

Why we stand out from the crowd

Our philosophy is a simple one. To offer you the best travel experience possible. We believe the only way to achieve this is to have genuine experts for each and every destination, we call them specialists. They'll design a trip around you, to match your interests, tastes and budget, and created with an absolute commitment to quality.

ABOUT US

We are travel enthusiasts who want to travel and explore the rest of the world. We are an off shoot of Jungle Travels India (JTI) which is the pioneer in the travel industry as it is the first to receive the IATA accreditation in the year 1996 in the entire Northeast India. Founded in 1989 by Ashish and Jahnabi Phookan, the idea behind Jungle Travels India was to bring guests into the jungles of the Northeast India. As their expertise grew they saw an up-rise of travelers from the native region who wanted to travel the rest of India and the world. This led to the birth of JTI Holidays.

EXOTIC VACATIONS

Our Experience Counts

With more than 25 years in the travel industry we know that there are vivid companies out there that run the same trips with such regularity that they have lost their true connection with the destination. Then there are the other companies that just grab an established tour company brochure and replicate what already exists. We carefully craft every tour we offer, making sure that we are not compromising on our goal of getting you out into a country to truly experience everything that makes it tick - the good the bad and the obnoxious!

Speak to our Meetings, Incentives , Conferences & Events specialist to organize corporate events in India and the rest of the world. We have contracts with some of the best hotels worldwide capable of handling large groups. We provide end to end services and we just leave the board meetings to you !

Service Commitment

As a mid-sized company, JTI Holidays can offer a level of service far beyond anything possible by the big travel companies. By the time you arrive on your trip we will know you quite well because you will be dealing with our staff in country. All your inquiries are handled by our crew in the field, not office bound sales people, so you know any information provided is not only factual but also the most up-to-date available

Value for Money accommodations

HOTELS

We Carefully choose accommodations for you. Some with character, some classy, but all with great service. And we have in all price bands - budget, mid-budget to luxurious ones.

On all of our JTI Holiday group tours are accompanied by a tour guide, selected for their love, passion, and experience in the countries in which we operate. All this ensures that you will be well looked after during the trip. We do, however, consider it important that we are not 'baby-sitting' you while you travel with us so that you have opportunities to experience the world on your own terms.
